

Stay

Sash

I had a dream last night, you were there
You held my hand so tight I thought I'd just die
Do you remember when we use to have so much fun?
I used to cry sometimes, those days are gone
Do you remember?
I wanna go back to, back to the days
When I needed a little more fun
When I believed I, I believed I could fly so high
Through the clouds
Tear down these walls if just for one day
Tear down these walls
I need you to stay, stay
Come on an stay, stay, stay
Turning back time to times we made love
All day under the sun
When I believed I, I believed I could fly so high
Through the clouds
Tear down these walls if just for one day
Tear down these walls
I need you to stay, stay
Come on an stay, stay, stay
