Hide and Seek

Janet Devlin

I'm so tired of playing hide and seek with love
I won't close my eyes and count again to 10I don't mind if you take what you need from me
You always hide but I'm finding it hard to seek
Oh I, I spy with my little eye some thing that begins with you
Oh why are you so hard to findI'm so tired of playing hide and seek with love
I won't close my eyes and count again to 10
Sick and tired of playing hide and seek with love
This time I'm going to hide my heart
Were you will never find itWe've been here so many times before
It's this game that I won't play
No I won't no more
Oh I, I spy with my little eye
Something that ends with you
Oh why are you so hard to findI'm so tired of playing hide and seek with love
I won't close my eyes and count again to 10
Sick and tired of playing hide and seek with love
This time I'm going to hide my heart
Were you will never find itYou won't find me
You give it up
So easily
I've had enough
It's my turn to leave
I won't be crying
So easilyI'm so tired of playing hide and seek with love
I won't close my eyes and count again to 10
Sick and tired of playing hide and seek with love
This time I'm going to hide my heart
Where you will never find it1
