Under the Stars (Labyrinth Ear Remix)

Morning Parade

You know you look so tired Youre gonna stay up late tonight

Under the stars

Ill put you in pride of placeIm gonna set my sights

Im gonna set your soul alight

Under the stars

Under the starsSo let the street lights shine away

Till the breaking of the day

In the morning youll decay a littleWeve led a lifetime come undone

Staring straight into the sun

Like the barrel of a gun

Under the stars

Under the starsBeen waiting my whole life

For you to come and waste a while

Out in the dark

In the emptiness of time and spaceBeen going out my mind

I gotta bring you back to life

You and your heart

You and your heavy heartSo let the street lights shine away

Till the breaking of the day

In the morning youll decay a littleWeve led a lifetime come undone

Staring straight into the sun

Like the barrel of a gun

Under the stars

Under the stars You know you look so tired

Youre gonna stay up late tonight

Under the stars

Under the stars

Under the starsUnder the stars

Under the starsSo let the street lights shine away

Till the breaking of the day

For tonight all of the saints are sinners Yeah I can feel we're coming up

Like our heart starts filling up

Like its rushing through our blood

Under the stars

Under the stars

Under the stars
