Deliverance Is Mine

Soilwork

From the darkest river comes the darkest heart
Never to be one with all I know
So bitter to the core, won't you fix your grudging soul?
Forgiving, yet unable to see what you have done
Embraced by the treasury
The mind's in captivity
I'm not your enemy
Forced mind activity
Now is it so damn hard?
Don't tell me what I don't deserve
Coating the words, crushing the urge
To be able to feel something more
Now where do we go?
Where do we go?
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine
And you're way out of line
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine
(All I wanna see is)
Now let me run my own fucking show
Make up with your spitefulness
Drain yourself from all the guilt
Become all of what you preach
Before you spill all your guts
Embraced by the treasury
The mind's in captivity

I'm not your enemy
Transporting all the guilt
Forced mind activity
Ignoring what was built
Now where do we go?
Where do we go?
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine

And you're way out of line
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine
Time to live through yourself
Time to kill that golden parasite
Respect your own self
Stop intoxicating your beliefs
Now where do we go?
Where do we go?
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine
And you're way out of line
Deliverance is mine
Me, myself and the hands of time
Deliverance is mine
Live through yourself
