

We Could Run Away

NEEDTOBREATHE

Everything stops as we look towards the clock
It feels like we're moving backwards
It's easy to find potential in before
But we look the same in the after
So, could we wait long enough to bide my time
Could we stay and say enough to change my mind
We could run away
Maybe we could change
Get back on our feet and then
Maybe make it home again
We could run away
And be on our own again
Maybe in the twilight
We can break out
Buy ourselves a Cadillac
Never turn around
We could run away
And be on our own again
We could stay here where things became unclear
Fighting what's left of the right way
But everyone hates the chances that we waste
Under the light of the new day
So could we wait long enough to bide my time
And could we stay and say enough to change my mind
We could run away
Maybe we could change
Get back on our feet and then
Maybe make it home again
We could run away
And be on our own again
Maybe in the twilight
We can break out
Buy ourselves a Cadillac
Never turn around
We could run away
And be on our own again
Whoa whoa whoa, ooh ooh
We could go away
Maybe we could change
Get back on our feet and then
And then maybe get back home again
We could go away
And be on our own again
Maybe in the twilight
We can break out

Never turn around
And be on our ownIf we could run away
Maybe we could change
Get back on our feet and then
We could run away
And be on our own again
We can break out
We could run away
And be on our own againWhoa whoa whoaGet back home again, ooh
Get back home again, ooh
