Begin Again

Rachel Platten

I need a wrecking ball
I want the sky to fall
God I feel so small tonight
I need a wrecking ball
I could crash and fall could it break my walls and make it rightcan I begin again can I begin again?I need a tidal wave come and wash away
All the mess I made to make it right
I need to make it rightI need big move
I need a sharp knife
I need to cut these scars right out of my lifeI need a big move
I need a sharp knife
Need to be shaken up
tonight
I need a wrecking ballfeel paralysed like i'm Frozen in time Just wanna close my eyes Make it go awayWhen did everything fall apart when did the nightmares start why is it so hard to find away to begin again oh to begin againBut I need big move
I need a sharp knife
I need to cut these scars
right out of my lifeI wanna a big move
I need a sharp knife
Need to be shaken up
tonight
I need a wrecking ball
I wanna a wrecking ball Cause I'm a wreck yeah cause I'm a wreckI need a wrecking ball Come and break my walls
