

Walk It Off

Toby Keith

Walk it off
Pick up all the pieces of your broken heart
You don't have to worry
She don't care no more
She ain't there no more, hit the wall
There's no one
You can call whose gonna ease your pain
Take your torn umbrella
Out into the rain, walk it off
Run, boy you were born to run, now the day has come
She's left you standing still

So deal, how does it feel? To have to face the fact
She ain't coming back, walk it off
Run, boy you were born to run, now the day has come
She's left you standing still
So deal, how does it feel? To have to face the fact
She ain't coming back, walk it off
Though you might not
Ever see her face again
Sitting here alone just scares you half to death
Boy don't hold your breath, walk it off
