

Breathing

RECOIL VOR

I take my hat off, bow before the greatness
You're so much braver I give you credit for
 Somehow the Grays create a harmony
 And no color can add a flavor...
 I've started to feel like...
 Know the face, familiar stranger
 I'm not a child, I feel misunderstood
 I built a bridge, you use the tunnel... now...

- The rope we are pulling is slipping away from me
All this wasted time is killing me... and I've started to feel like...
 [x2]I can not control my life anymore
 Feel a need to leave and breathe on my own
 I remember all the broken songs of our life
 Maybe one more wrong will make it all right...
 I just really need to be alone now...
