

Give Me Tonight

Darin

There was a time ago when life was right
Nothing was fisical, everything was fine
I had everything I wished but there was something missing
Than you came in through my door and I had to teel you that, girl...
I can show you what's better if you give me tonight...
Just staying by my side
Break this window, put your heart away

Life is beautifull as you are today
If you have one life to live...
Let's live it today
Now that I've found you it's been so confusing
What I find in my heart isn't found in yours
Every little peace of me keeps from me a secret
That even if I fight for you I will have to let you go...
...I can give you all my love
