4Minute

Echo & The Bunnymen
Electrafixion - Burned
Who's Been Sleeping In My Head?
Who's been sleeping in my head
I know for sure it was not me
All those things i _____ and
All those things i couldn't seeIn between now and the memory
Another you and another meSick suck sack
I want my reason back
And tell me how do you fall so low
Beaten off the ever beaten track
And where did all the hours goIn between now and the coming moon
Another me and another you
And it's my turn
And it's my turn
And it's my turnNow yeah now yeah
Now yeah now yeahOooh, aaah, oooh, aaahWho's been sleeping in my head
I know for sure it wasn't me
All those things i _____ and
All those things i couldn't seeIn between now and the memory
Another you and another meAnd it's my turn
And it's my turn
And it's my turnNow yeah now yeah
Now yeah now yeah
Aaah, oooh
Underneath another god
Could've believed in you
Underneath another sky
Could've believed in meUnderneath another god
Could've believed in you
Underneath another sky
Could've believed in me
Underneath another god
Underneath another god
Underneath another god
