On The Wire

Bo Bruce

Saw it coming from afar
Always knew it would be hard
The telephone is our best friend
Transmissions do not ease the lonely
Circumstances mean so much
Been so long without your touch
Love ain't made to bend, to bend, bend
And the static is the worst of enemies
Lungs fill to take a final breath
Screaming skies above
I've had enough
I'm standing in the rain, the rain, the rain, the rain,
Standing in the rain, the rain, the rain
It's killing me to hear you voice
Facing that we have no choice
And fighting off the pain, the pain, the pain, the pain
Fighting off the pain, the pain, on the wire
It's easier to be naive
It's harder 'cause I'm losing sleep
And ignorance is our best friend
Insomnia's the death or dreaming
Sorry if my words seem cold
Trying to be rational
Are you on the other end, end, end?
'Cause the static is the worst of enemies
Lungs fill to take a final breath
Screaming skies above
I've had enough
I'm standing in the rain, the rain, the rain, the rain,

Standing in the rain, the rain, the rain
It's killing me to hear you voice
Facing that we have no choice
And fighting off the pain, the pain, the pain, the pain
Fighting off the pain, the pain, on the wire
And if this rain has no mercy
Rain has no mercy, rain has no mercy
Go, I'll go
And when the times become trying

Times become trying, times become trying
Explode, explode
Don't hang up before we take another step
My lungs fill to take a final breath, a breath
Screaming skies above
I've had enough
I'm standing in the rain, the rain, the rain, the rain,
Standing in the rain, the rain, the rain
It's killing me to hear you voice
Facing that we have no choice
And fighting off the pain, the pain, the pain, the pain
Fighting off the pain, the pain, on the wire
I've had enough
I'm standing in the rain, the rain, the rain, the rain,
Standing in the rain, the rain, the rain
It's killing me to hear you voice
Facing that we have no choice
And fighting off the pain, the pain, the pain, the pain
Fighting off the pain, the pain, on the wire
On the wire, On the wire, On the wire,
On the wire, On the wire, On the wire
