

Live-In Skin

Foo Fighters

Take your payroll
And your lottery
There's a place I know
There's a robbery And I swear I'll never tell
If you swear you'll never tell
And we'll all make out so well
We will all make out so well Head on with my hate
Into the lights ahead
I'm amazed that I'm still standing
And I demand that we all blend in
I'm amounted Just the same old
Glitter story
From the sea floor
Metamorphosis
And I can't change back for you
I will not change back for you
I must live in skin that's new
I'm a livid skin that's new Head on with my hate
Into the lights ahead
I'm amazed that I'm still standing
And I demand that we all blend in
I'm amounted Turn your insides out to the outside
Turn the outside in to the inside
Trade your outside in for the inside
Turn it around again
Turn your insides out to the outside
Turn the outside in to the inside
Trade your outside in for the inside
Turn it around again I'm amounted And I can't change back for you
No I can't change back for you
