

Prisoner's Model

The Red Krayola

A handwritten note was sellotaped to her door which said
"Bolly, the engineer, Bolly...the engineer"

Thanks be to the academy
And to dear old ugly fucking Bolly For she was the one who really got it all together never mind the weather
Bolly Bolly Bolly
The Stupid cow

Once when she was laying the fields when she was in the middle of a picnic the beef which was poking out from sandwich stale and unappetising yes kept dropping in the mu-hu-hu-hud

Michael Jackson came along with Nazis and asked if he could have the extra meat Bolly wasn't sure if she should let him not because of his notoriety just simply the low artistic value of his music

Bolly made a very quick decision
She reached for her phone and called the police Her sandwiches were safe in the end and of course the academy too which was how she earned the sellotaped sign on her door
