Buy And Sell

Laura Nyro

Cocaine and quiet beers, sweet candy and caramels
Pass the time and dry the tears on a street called buy and sell
Life turns like the endless sea, death tolls like a vesper bell
Children laugh and lovers dream on a street called buy and sellLadies dressed calico style, beware, your heart
When they smile and their men walk shamelessly, aimlessly by Cinders in the daylight, junkyards in the sky, buy and sell
Sell my goods to buy my roof, my bed, my bedTwo pennies will buy a rose, three pennies and who can tell
On a street that comes and goes by the name of buy and sell
Buy and sell, sell my goods to buy my roof, my bed
