Heaven Help the New Girl

The Long Blondes

No more nights in the flat
In the flat above the pet shop
Hiding every picture of your boyfriend
He never has to go behind my back again
Because I don't speak to him nowNo more fights in the car,
In the back of his car
A car that never started and the rows they never stopped
He never has to go behind my back again
Because I don't speak to him nowI say
Heaven help the new girl
If she has to go through what I went through tooDon't get me wrong
If you want someone
Who's gonna lead you on
He's the one for you
Don't get me wrong
If you want someone
Who's gonna treat you bad
He's the man
But who wants that anywayOh
Heaven help the new girl
If she has to go through what I went through too
Heaven help the new girl
If she has to go through what I went through tooSo go
Just go
Because you'll be never 19 again
And I thought I told you before
You don't need a boyfriendSo go
Just walk
It doesn't matter if its raining or dark
And if by some strange stroke of luck
I pick you up
then we can drive to the country
Laugh to ourselves
And both sayHeaven help the new girl
If she has to go through what I went through too
