Cry for Help

Acceptance

Hard times the throw is off line pictures of black and grey
Soft minds backed up by hard drives standing in single file
Anything to pass the testLike screaming in the air a sound for all who care
The siren rings in vain
When lightning hits the ground to all who stand around
A shock of ignoranceBlack lines can turn into battlefields when they are drawn in pain
Stop signs like human apathy can cause a fatal crash
The feeling hard to tell a word can break the spell
