Don't Go Away

Toad the Wet Sprocket

We've been sharing so many words and feelings
Age is heavier, it seems, than years alone
But, I told you things I wouldn't dream of telling anyone
Are we drying out, like flowers from a forgotten someoneDon't go away
I can't feel the same without you
Don't go away
I can't feel the same without youWe were making so many plans and secrets
We would both be millionaires or kings or presidents
But like everything those little dreams
Just kind of came and wentHard now just to make end meet
How soon we all forgetDon't go away
I can't feel the same without you
Don't go away
I can't feel the same without youDon't go away
I can't feel the same without you
Don't go away
Don't go awayWe were sharing so many words and feelings
Age is heavier, it seems, than years alone
But, I told you things that I wouldn't dreamDon't go away
I can't feel the same without you
Don't go away
I can't feel the same without youDon't go away
I can't feel the same without you
Don't go away
Don't go awayDon't go away
Don't go away
Don't go away
