When I Look Up

Jack Johnson

When I look up at the stars
As I walk in the night
Down the street by my house
It feels goodWhen I look up at the stars
As I walk in the night
Down the street by my house
It feels goodThe light from the moon
Is afraid of the ground
So it falls behind spaces
And hides behind cloudsWhen I look up at the clouds
As they move through the night
With the wind
As I walk down the streetThe light from the moon
Is afraid of the ground
So I step on the shadows
Of my own feet
