

In the Light

Full Blown Rose

Winter winds have gone and faded
October skies are thoughts of gray
Tears upon my pillow laying
A child lost to pain, I'll pray for better days
Lift me up, lead me from this place
Let your love be mercy on my fate
Rising up, I change before your eyes
How the darkness faded in the light, light
Hand of hope come and change me
Out of ashes make me whole
Lift me up and recreate me
And help me overcome myself, lead me from hell
Lift me up, lead me from this place
Let your love be mercy on my fate
Rising up, I change before your eyes
How the darkness faded in the light, light
I'm rising up, I'm moving on
Give me strength to carry on
I feel the light upon my face
I hear the angels words of grace
My broken wings that learnt to fly
Lift me up and justify
I'm standing up, I'm standing out
I feel the walls comes crashing down
Lift me up, lead me from this place
Let your love be mercy on my fate
Rising up, I change before your eyes
How the darkness faded in the light
Light, light, light
