

I To You

Mattafix

Oh yeah
In so many ways
Im not a fighter Im a lover
This aint the old days Im a 21st century brothaAnd if you dont know
Who I am
You will never know
You dont know, so you try to keep it on the down low
Unless you wanna tell me when I ask you:
Who am I to you?Yo mama dont know
Yo daddy aint sho
Who am I to you?Everybody you know
Passed me straight on the road
Now Id like to know who am I to you?The sun is going down
An the streets are getting empty
Im a stranger in your town
Ill be your friend if you would let meAnd if you dont know
Who I am
You will never know
You dont know, So you try to keep it on the down low
Unless you wanna tell me when I ask you;
Who I am to youYo mama dont know
Yo daddy and sho
Who am I to you?
(Who I, who I)Every body you know (Who I, who I) passed me straight on the road (Who I, who I)
Now id like to know (brotha)
Who am I to you? (brotha)You dont know
Never know
dont know
Down low
Unless you
Ask you
Who I am to you?Yo mama dont know
Yo daddy aint sho
Who I am to you?
Everybody you know passed me straight on the road
Now Id like to know, Who I am to you
