

Never Made a Promise

Kingdom Heirs

I have a blessed assurance and it helps me to face every storm,
A foretaste of heaven I cling to and that's what I've built my life on,
So instead of the struggles I'm facing let me tell of the savior I know,
How His Word is today and for always so I always have a reason to hope.

Refrain--

Cause there's never been a long night He won't bring me through,
There's never been a morning His mercies aren't new,
There's never been a moment He's not all I need,
He's never made a promise that He does not keep

Oh He tells me that he'll never leave me,
That He will be strong when I'm weak,
And I'll find grace is sufficient; what ever my heartache and grief,
Oh the trials of this life always show me, He will be faithful to me 'til the end,
That's why my song, my story is of Jesus, my Savior and Friend.

Refrain--

Cause there's never been a long night He won't bring me through,
There's never been a morning His mercies aren't new,
There's never been a moment He's not all I need,
He's never made a promise that He does not keep.

There's never been a moment He's not all I need,
He's never made a promise that He does not keep

--A--

Promises, promises, and all of them true.
He's done exactly what He said He would do.
He didn't promise my heart would not be broken,
But He did say He'd mend it again.
