

Fire and Ice

Loudblast

A siren living in a sea of liberties
Ecstasy and pain
No one can resist her chant, it revives desire
Overwhelms your body with longing and incestuous
SensationsMoment of climax... intense
Preceded with pain... intense
Preceded with pleasure... masochism, masochismI'm the haunting shadow of desire, between ecstasy and
Pain
My body's nothing but fire, madness and desire
I've become nothing but violence and passion
Between fire and iceThe love I lavish constitutes
An unthinkable experience
Made of sensual pleasure, suffering, delight
My suffering, your pleasureI'm the haunting shadow of desire, between ecstasy and
Pain
My body's nothing but fire, madness and desire
I've become nothing but violence and passion
Between fire and iceI'm the haunting shadow of desire, between ecstasy and
Pain
My body's nothing but fire, madness and desire
I've become nothing but violence and passion
Between fire and ice
I've become nothing but violence and passion
Between fire and ice
Between fire and ice
Between fire and ice
