Rock Is Dead

Edgewater

Back to the ground
We're all alone again
Led by a sound
No, we're not giving in
They want us to change
They want us to fall in place
But, we're going to make some waves
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Fuck this
You're trying to wind us down
Winding down
Winding down
Falling out of focus
Bring it back to life
We'll give it away
We're giving it all away
We're going to make some waves
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Now I'm back to the ground

Back to the ground
Back to the ground
Back to the ground
I was told that rock was dead
I don't believe it
I was told that rock was dead
I won't believe it
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down

This shit is going to save us
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Fuck this
You're trying to break us down
This shit is going to save us
Don't want to believe it
Not gonna believe it
Can't you see that I need it?
So fuck how you see it
Rock!
Rock!
Rock!
Rock!
