

A Reflection of You

The Grace Thrillers

-Intro-

(Oooh oooh) Oh Lord I just wanna be just like you (oooh oooh)

-Verse 1-

Take my heart make it yours (so it beats for only you)
Take my eyes and make them pour (let me see the way you do)
Take control of my mind, lord direct me to your will
Until my days are finished, I just wanna be much closer,
Closer to your image.

Touch my hands make them yours (wanna do great things for you)
Touch my voice that when I speak (it will set the captives free)
Guide my feet where I go, and all the world will know
That it's you that reigns within me
And without you I'd be lost
I'm depending on you totally

-Chorus-

I wanna be a reflection of you
That when they see me they will see you too
When your inside your love keeps shining through
To be pure and holy, sanctified and true
I wanna be a reflection of you (oo oh)
Oo ohhh reflection of you

-Verse 2-

Hold me close don't let me go (need to feel your presence near)
Take my thoughts so I may grow (when you speak they need to hear)
To be your vessel more and more, That is what I'm longing for Fall a fresh on me daily
Ordinary just won't do
Lord I need you completely

-Chorus-
