The Things I didn't Do

Kazuo Yashiro

I never said I loved you as I should have done
I never told you, darling, you're the only one
Will I go on regretting now my whole life through
The things I didn't do?I never held my arms around you long enough
I never dared to make my kisses strong enough
Will I go on regretting now my whole life through
The things I didn't do?I was too much afraid, afraid to get burned
In a one way romance
So now I'm alone, too late I have learned
I never gave love a chanceBut if there is an answer to my every prayer
If you can find within your heart that you still care
I'll gladly spend my life just makin' up to you
The things I didn't doI never gave love a chance
But if there is an answer to my every prayer
If you can find within your heart that you still care
I'll gladly spend my life just makin' up to you
The things, the things I didn't do
