Your Latest Victim

Park

Throw me hard so I hit the concrete
Scream words that you never did mean
Even I can't stand this evidence
It's clear so clearRinging in my ears won't stop
And you've been smiling all along
Burnt outShe's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leaving
She's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leavingBreak me up so my heart is shattered
Three words that you never did mean
Even I can't stand this evidence
It's clear so clearThe ringing in my ears won't stop
And you've been laughing all along
Burnt outShe's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leaving
She's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leavingI can sit in this room and breathe abused
I can do without the warmth from you
But your knife like smile needs a victim
Worth your whileShe's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leaving
She's in it for the nicotine, boys
More poised than perfect, not worth saving only leavingI can do what stab wounds never do
I can peel the skin back just for you
Beautiful you, perfect pretty gutless and cute
