

Good Love Gone Bad

Billy Dean

Fourth of July the rain was pourin down on [unverified] town that evenin
Bout the time the fireworks hit the sky
And you said, "Happy Independence day, oh, and by the way Im leavin"
I didnt know you could be so cut and drySo sad, goodbye
(So sad, goodbye)
No rhyme no reason why its just
Good love, gone bad
(Good love, gone bad)I lost the best that I ever had
I gotta pick up pieces of my shattered dreams
While the world spins right out from under my feet
So sad, good love gone badThe ways of love are tough and steep
Keeps teachin me the hard way
Guess what, I think this time I finally learned
So if you find yourself at home alone dont you dial my number
Cause I wont be here where were concerned, oh, yeahSo sad, goodbye
(So sad, goodbye)
No rhyme no reason why its just
Good love, gone bad
(Good love, gone bad)You lost the best that you ever had
You gotta pick up pieces of your shattered dreams
While the world spins right out from under your feet
So sad, good love gone badIts all so sad
But when its right, its right
(Its right, its right)
When its wrong, its gone
(Wrong, gone)
Time to say so longSo sad, good love gone bad
So sad, good love gone bad
Yeah, best you ever had
Hey
