

Build The Cities (Redial Remix) [feat. Kerli]

Karma Fields

Miles of fire
I'm losing ground
And in the flashing
My world comes crashing downI'm left to nowhere
    No place to hide
    Out in the open
    Like ashes in the skyI quit the illusion
    I'm moving on
I'm moving onI let the flames light up the future
    Making empires of sound
    And see the tears become laughter
    You break the bridges
To build the citiesI let the flames light up the future
    Making empires of sound
    And see the tears become laughter
    You burnt the bridges
To build the cities.I let the flames light up the future
    Making empires of sound
    And see the tears become laughter
    You burnt the bridges
To build the cities.I let the flames light up the future
    Making empires of sound
    And she would chase what's coming after
    You burnt the bridges
To build the cities.You burnt the bridges
    To build the cities.
