

Assault At First Light (Album Version)

Kane Hodder

Win this war for meSave your affectionate smile
For the knife stuck in your head
Cold-blooded cancer
Punchlines give you that quick deathYou hoped for ten years ago
We should have let you die one month agoTie your hair back
I wanna kiss you before I kill you
It's only warfare, don't get technicalEvery time, you tongue licks through my torso
Every time, you taste my blood
It makes me wanna know you better
It makes me wanna kill you like the HeathersWe should be back to back
But then it's difficult to stab you in the back
We should be back to back
But then it's difficult to slash through the throatExile the child's soul and she'll kill you at the altar
Exile the child to the thirteenth tower
Exile the child's soul and she won't find it
In her heart to hate you
