

The Bar

Maxamillion

Used to spend my days obsessing over you
To make you crave me, there was nothing I could do
I turned so many heads while you were on my mind
But all I wanted was for yours to be mine

How could it be
Iâ€™m swept off my feet and I told myself that you fulfill every dreamin'
You turned away, I better start believing Iâ€™m worth the while, even if you canâ€™t see it

Refrain:
I walk the bar, that you set so high for me
And even if you don't know my worth
I know my place all the time

You spend most of your hours, just testing the waters
You spend most of your days, going through my folders
You spend most of your weeks, deciding if youâ€™re for us
When all I wanted was for you to feel the water

How could it be
Iâ€™m swept off my feet and I told myself that you fulfill every dreamin'
You turned away, I better start believing Iâ€™m worth the while, even if you canâ€™t see it

Refrain

Bridge:
Iâ€™ve got no time to waste to wait for you
