

Lovesick Blues

Kyprios

See I'm under that same spell
Trace the face of an angel
Love sick blues and I ain't well
Loneliness, is when the kiss of death's your only kiss
And true love is a myth cause it doesn't exist
It's like being struck by the fist of a pacifist
Its a cancerous bliss
Whos your master in this? And whos he work for?
Love can make a free man a slave and make him hurt more
Than a life sentence spent with jealousy
Man if love is blind, how can it always follow me?[Chorus]It was all a dream
Satan wore Satin and God rocked gabberdein
Angels in ancient apparel, denim wearing demons
And there was love looking like a heathen
And there was love looking like a reason to exist
Bleeding at the wrist evening the risk
Im easin down the abyss of misfortune
Is love all we need or an extortion?
I approach with honesty to be honorable
But honesty was unemployed and didnt work anymore
And jealousy was with love lookin envious
And anywhere I went with love jealousy would come with us
And jealousy would always be the treachery of deceit
The treasury of the weak
I couldnt see my love blinded by jealousy
While God was demonic and the devil laughed angelically[Chorus]

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>