

Crazyman

Lake of Tears

Darkness and chaos unleashed, stirring the sleep of the beast
I've got this wonderful plan to conquer the demon
Then I'll be the one in command To keep you away they kept you insane
Oh, they kept you insane A waking mind set on fire, flames getting higher and higher
I've got a wonderful goal, to conquer the demon
Then I'll be the one in control To keep you in play they kept you insane
Oh, they kept you insane
