Shallow (Radio Edit)

Porcupine Tree

I don't remember
Did something in my past create a hole?
Don't use your gender
To drive a stake right through my soulI live to function
On my own is all I know
No friends to mention
No distraction, nowhere to goShallow, shallow, give it to me, give it to me
Scissors cutting out your anger
Shallow, shallow, no good to me, not if you bleed
Bite your tongue, ignore the splinterThis city drains me
Maybe it's the smell of gasoline
The millions pain me
It's easier to talk to my PCI live to function
On my own is all I know
No friends to mention
No distraction, nowhere to goShallow, shallow, give it to me, give it to me
Scissors cutting out your anger
Shallow, shallow, no good to me, not if you bleed
Bite your tongue, ignore the splinter[Incomprehensible]Shallow, shallow, give it to me, give it to me
Scissors cutting out your anger
Shallow, shallow, no good to me, not if you bleed
Bite your tongue, ignore the splinter

Songwriters
WILSON, STEVEN / BALCH, COLIN EDWIN / BARBIERI, RICHARD / HARRISON, GAVIN RICHARDPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/