

Beyond the Blue

Joan Armatrading

You put me in touch
With all my senses
You showed me the wayI've never been close
To such feelings
I did not beg
But you cured me of
My broken heartI'll never forget
The day that we met
Hm so sweet
Like honey from the beeYou put yourself square
To my defenses
Tore down the walls
Walked right in
And you stole my heartUp up and above
Beyond the blue
Way beyond the stars
Someone looked at me
And thought of you
Reached out and touched us so soft
Like gentle snowI'll never forget
The day that we met
You are so sweet
You're like honey from the beeYou put yourself square
To my defenses
Tore down the walls
Walked right in
And you
And stole my my heartTore down the walls
Stole my heartTore down the walls
Walked right in
And you stole my heart
