Beulah

S. Martin

Time floats by
Like a ghost in they sky
Wherever the wind blows
They'll go

A golden sun
With pictionary clouds
A crimson sun
Kisses goodnight
To everyone

And says
Did you live life today?
And feel my rays on your face
If you could do it all again
Would you change anything?

And just
Be still for a moment in time
Be still for a moment in time
Be still

The clock on the wall
Says just relax
Who cares
Put on your Sunday slacks
And Sweet Caroline
One more time

And
Did you live life today?
And feel my rays on your face?
If you could do it all again
Would you change anything?

And Just
Be still for a moment in time
Be still for a moment in time
Be still
