

Different Than You

The Exies

I used to hate you, no reason why
I was so angry, so full of pride
Lost in opinions, and in you with those
I knew everything that you didn't know

And I used to think I would show I was right
When I knew the truth from a lie

I was so stupid when I was young
I was so stupid to think that I was...

[Chorus]
So different, so different than you
So different, so different than you
I know that I said the truth
So different; I'm no different than you

Was I just jealous, bitter, and cold?
Sins I could never... the lies that I told
I have no respect for you, only myself
A memory I'm not so fond of as well

And I can honestly say I was wrong
So can you forgive me so I can move on?

I was so stupid when I was young
I was so stupid to think that I was...

[Chorus]
We are one and the same
Only with different names
Somethings I know are changing
And I know this love I'm hating

We are one and the same
Your blood runs through my veins
For fuck I feel this failing
I love the love I'm hating

I was so stupid when I was young
I was so stupid to think that I was...

[Chorus]

Different than you
Different than you
I know I said the truth
So different; I'm no different than you
