Rilo Kiley

Christ, you're already gone
And i thought it'd take longer to kill you
And a month is no time at all
No time to reach down and erase you
You're so e-mo-tion-al
In the light of your mom's front room
I'm a thoughtless beast
Afraid of everything
And it's how you choose to see it
Strength or human needs
You're so e-mo-tion-al
In the light of your mom's front room
I'm so e-mo-tion-al

In the unforgiving light of the moon
And you lost your way home
And it feels familiar
And crickets guide you back
And you hear them calling
And it sounds familiar
And they might help you out
(scream) it's so hard
E-mo-tion-al
In the light of your mom's front room
You're so em-o-tion-al
In the light of the marquee moon
