

Eyes of a Criminal

Chimaira

This rage has overcome, no more will I shun
These thoughts I've had, this lie I've lived
I let them put the blame on me Engulfed in hate, retaliate
You can't conceal these thoughts
You can't disguise this rage You have overstepped your boundaries
Now I've got, I've got your back against the wall
Forever trapped, staring through the eyes of a criminal A broken home left alone
An excuse you used, don't bullshit me
Save all the breath that you can breathe Engulfed in flames, incinerate
You can't conceal my thoughts
And you can't disguise my hate Staring through my eyes
