I Blame You

Ledisi

People keep asking about this glow I have
'Cause I'm just not the same
They say I'm walking different, talking different
Looks like all of me has changedMagic is in my eyes, I can no longer hideWhen they look at me
What they fail to see
Is the love you got me feeling
Like I'm dancing on the ceiling
I can hardly breathe
'Cause you're all I need
So when they ask me why I'm smiling like a fool
I blame you
Oh, baby, I blame you, oh yeahMy mind is frozen, got me open of you love
Can't think of no one else
I smell the roses, doing poses in the mirror
You make me love myselfMagic is in my eyes, I can no longer hideWhen they look at me
What they fail to see
Is the love you got me feeling
Like I'm dancing on the ceiling
I can hardly breathe
'Cause you're all I need
So when they ask me why I'm smiling like a fool
I blame you
Oh, baby, I blame you, oh yeahI blame you, oh yeah
Oh, baby, I blame youI blame you each and every day
It's your fault that I'm completely blown away
You've been building castles in the sky
A place for only you and I
I, I, II blame you
Oh, baby, I blame you, oh yeah
I blame you
Oh, baby, I blame you, oh yeahWhen they look at me
What they fail to see
I blame you
I can hardly breathe
'Cause you're all I need
I blame youI blame you
You
