Afternoon

Patrick Zimmerli & Octurn

The demon likes the moon like a stroll against the wall I've watched all Afternoon i'm not watching at all i'm thinking that we need every moment on the way i climb my hedge and throw i want to stay but i must stay there's a demon on the loose he can hide under our floor comes inside to wait last night knocking on my bedroom door i went walking in last night causing through my body pain and when i peaked i know they say I will leave you when i'm clean.
