The Lucky Ones

Logan Staats

Lightning strikes once in your life, if this is love Iâ€™m rolling the dice
Let it rain cause weâ€™re on fire and I know you know it
I never wanna see your heart happy, with another
Iâ€™m never gonna let you go ever, cause youâ€™re mine
I never wanna see your heart happy, with another
Iâ€™m never gonna let you go so hold me close tonight

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but weâ€™re young and weâ€™re burning bright
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Close your eyes and hold me close tonight

You and I wrapped in my bed
Lost in time as good as it gets
Close your eyes and make a wish like you know weâ€™re golden
I never wanna see your heart happy, with another
Iâ€™m never gonna let you go so hold me close tonight

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but weâ€™re young and weâ€™re burning bright
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Close your eyes and hold me close tonight

Ohhh woah woahhh, ohhh woah woahhhh
Ohhh woah woahhh, ohhh woah woahhhh

I never wanna see your heart happy, with another
Iâ€™m never gonna let you go ever, cause youâ€™re mine
I never wanna see your heart happy, with another
Iâ€™m never gonna let you go so hold me close tonight

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but weâ€™re young and weâ€™re burning bright
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Close your eyes and hold me close tonight

Ohhh woah woahhh, ohhh woah woahhhh
Ohhh woah woahhh, ohhh woah woahhhh

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones

Close your eyes and hold me close tonight
