

Only One (Instrumental)

BoA

English Translation: You're only getting farther you're the only one

As much as I loved you, you're the only one

It hurts and hurts and it's foolish but good bye

Though I may never see you again, you're the only one

Only one We awkwardly sit across each other,

Making small talk and asking what's new

The moments when the conversation stops for a moment

The cold silence freezes us We will become strangers at this place right now

Someone will shed tears and be left alone but

I hate seeing you try not to scar me and feel ill at ease

So I'll let you go My love, good bye now you're the only one (you're the only one)

Even at the moment we break up, you're the only one

It hurts and hurts and it's foolish but good bye

Though I may never see you again, you're the only one Only One

You're the only one, Only One At my sudden works, you seem to be relieved for some reason

Where did we go wrong?

Did we hope for different places starting from long ago? The sharpness of the vast difference of our start and end

And the pain that stabs my heart why is it so similar?

My overwhelmed heart crumbles empty in just one moment

How can I stand up again? My love, good bye now you're the only one (you're the only one)

Even at the moment we break up, you're the only one

It hurts and hurts and it's foolish but good bye

Though I may never see you again, you're the only one When will my head erase you? (I will let you go)

One day, two days, one month, if long term then a few years (My baby can't forget)

And someday in your memories,

I won't live in it, you will erase me Only One Only One
