Love Goes Down

Brother Firetribe

You tell me how you've been hurting
You tell me you've stopped believing
Well let me tell you that I've been hurting - too
But let me tell you I still believe in me and youAnd now you say - we're trapped in a one way love affair
And so you say - the only one way is going downWhen love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flames
When love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flamesWell let me tell you
That I've been hurting - too
But let me tell you
I still believe in me and you
It's alright - the way you see it
Think I deserve it,
I had it comingAnd now you say - we're trapped in a one way love affair
And so you say - the only one way is going downWhen love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flames
There ain't nothing
When love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flames
There ain't nothingBut just remember, I'm not the only one to blame
It always takes too, after all is said and doneWhen love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flames
There ain't nothing, there ain't nothing...
When love goes down in flames
There ain't nothing you can do about it
When love's shot down in flames
There ain't nothing, there ain't nothing...
