Eyes Of A Child

Seemless

Light the flame, and I turning away Restless souls crying to release them from the pain They cant take the pain..oh Times so wasted it wastes away resurrect me Jesus Christ I'm so lonely for you Hear the children cry one by one they die cant you help them Look what we've done to our sins.. yeah
The eyes of a fallen child
Taken away the innocence of life
Deliver me.. deliver me out from this pain
And I will live through you again ooh.. though the eye's of a child

Down pouring rain
Death comes with a shame we look away We feel the stains, of blood soaked tears made from their fears and helpless ones all alone why don't we stand by their side.. whoa by their side yeah.. yeah
The eyes of a fallen child
Taken away the innocence of life
Deliver me.. deliver me out from this pain
And I will live through you again
Again.. though the eye's of a child Ooh yeah
yeah solo Whoa.. through the eyes of a childx2
