Follow Me Now

Alvin And The Chipmunks

This morning I woke up and something had changed.
I felt kind good and it felt kinda strange there's something going on here
and maybe it's a brand new world,
Or I'm just crazy, insane.
So, everything's different well, I guess that's OK cause those thoughts that used to hold me down have all gone away.
I feel like I can take on the world
So, come along for the ride,
Or just get out of my way!
(Chorus) Come on!, Come on!

Get up!, Get up!
let's go won't you follow me
Let's go won't you follow me now.(me now, me now.)x2
So tell me your secrets and I'll sell you my soul
There's a shovel in my heart and it's digging a hole.
The devil and the god in my head are having breakfast in my brain and it's driving me insane.
(Chorus)
Won't someone follow me now.
