Stuttering

Auryn

I'm stuttering. You left and I couldn't breathe.
I was petrified that you could see
when we were not right.
Yeah, but you could read right between the lines.
Every word I'd say...you knew exactly
Every time I'd pray...that only you would have me
Every promise made...is nothing but history.I'm stuttering. You left and I couldn't see.
So I denied that you were free.
Yeah, but even I had to let you be.
I had to let you be.Every word I'd say...you knew exactly
Every time I'd pray...that only you would have me
Every promise made...is nothing but historyBut you are mine.
