How Do I Turn You On

Ronnie Milsap

I'd like to be a fly on your wall
When you think you're all alone
Learn your secrets once and for all
Never tell no oneI can't read your mind
It's secret telling timeTell me how do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
Maybe there's a game we could play
Is there something that you want? But you're too shy to sayHow do I turn you on?
Turn you on to meOhh I could take you away
A million miles from here
When I'm getting close baby say
With a whisper in my earHow to make you mine?
It's secret telling timeTell me how do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
Maybe there's a game we could play
Is there something that you want? But you're too shy to sayHow do I turn you on?
Turn you on to meJust between you and me
I'm a little nervous too
But just beyond our wildest dreams
It's waiting for me, and it's waiting for youTurn you on
Turn you onOh, oh, maybe there's a game we can play
Is there something that you want, but you're too shy to sayHow do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
Tell me how do I turn you on?
