Mastodon

It's gone away, it's gone away, it's gone for good
Animal spirits come calling me home
Through the tunnels of brilliant light the magnet of wisdom is pulling
Burrowing faster, the fabric of time No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time space
Rabid descendants, the wormhole is empty The center of Khlusty surrounds me
The fire is dancing in a silvery sheet of breath
Black robe, necromancing
Summon the soul of the spectre No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time space
Fire in the eye, realm of mystic majesty No escape, binding spirits
No escape, trapped in time space
Fire in the eye, realm of mystic majesty
