

Unsaid (feat. Norah Jones)

Anoushka Shankar

Love wasn't left unsaid
thank you, that was left unsaid
I know you, may be left unsaid
I don't know what was said
My heart ,my heart speaks to you
Your heart knows it was spoken true
In body, blood and soul I came I walked in love and not in shame hearts can speak when lips can't there was more, I lost my chance Were there things I should have done it's too late now that you're gone love wasn't left unsaid
thank you that was left unsaid
"I see you", may be left unsaid
I don't know what was said. Fortune smiles on me, oh my Had the chance to say good-bye.
In your eyes it was love I read.
There wasn't much we left unsaid.
Love....
