Midnight

Rancid

MidnightI know where I am that's right I know where I'm goin' shut down - vacant city Ghost town - Tensions risin' Kick kick kick the door in Look look look around andAffairs affairs of the nationWhen the pressure came down Sustain authorityMidnight - I know I canThat's right - I ain't broken...
motorcycle ride.
NAME:
You don't know my name man you don't know my namePaint a number on my head work me till I'm deadI can believe I've wasted all of these years I've tasted A million days & nights all this pain and struggle all for whatI askAll the hate & troublePunch drunk from the punch clock opportunity never gonna knock no more blue collarAll the unions gettin' smallerOne million nights & all the pain and struggle all for whatI ask all the hate and trouble...
7@YEARS.DOWN
There's a place where I like to go when I got no food or I got no shelter It's a house where I can get away for maybe three days to get off the drink and hazeWho's the oppositionI'm 7 years downThe human spirit prevails yeah I'm down down downWoke up in the bushes 6:30 Tuesday morning with an unopened Heineken end ahead That was burning for 7 years I walked the same path dreams rumors (december 1994): rancid signs to SONY? I hope not.
---

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/